

Academy for Disciplined Forces

WHO WE ARE

The Academy for Disciplined Forces is a licensed, autonomous, further education institution (MQF Level 4, License Number 2021 – 008) set up to carry out training and professional development of members of the following Disciplined Forces in Malta: The Malta Police Force, The Armed Forces of Malta, The Civil Protection Department, and The Correctional Services Agency. The Academy ensures the Disciplined Forces can attract and employ the best candidates and gives them the opportunity to develop themselves continuously. Through training, the Academy promotes a combination of skills, expertise, professional behaviour and attitudes. The policies, regulations, and laws governing the Disciplined Forces allow the Academy to assist in the recruitment of candidates applying for jobs with the forces and provide recruits with induction training. The Academy also provides comprehensive training to serve the highly specialised skills required on the job and for continuous professional development.
